

Judd Gregg, Chairman
Contact: Gayle Osterberg 202-224-6011
Cara Duckworth 202-224-2574

April 20, 2005

PLEASE NOTE LOCATION

MEDIA ADVISORY

Senate Budget Committee to hold hearing with Federal Reserve Chairman Greenspan

The Senate Budget Committee will hold a full committee hearing with Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan titled "Structural Deficits and Budget Process Reform" on Thursday, April 21 in Hart 216. Chairman Greenspan will discuss the near and long-term fiscal outlook and how the budget process should be changed as Congress begins to deal with the challenges brought on by the baby-boom generation retirement.

WHAT: Senate Budget Committee Hearing, "Structural Deficits and Budget Process Reform"

WITNESS: Alan Greenspan, Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board

WHEN: Thursday, April 21, 10 a.m.

WHERE: SH-216

TESTIMONY INFORMATION: Testimonies will be available on an embargoed basis starting at 9:30 a.m. in SD-212. Press must have credentials to receive testimony.